

YAKAMA NATION HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Announcement # 2012-089 Issue Date: 07-06-12 Closing Date: 07-20-12

Cook Aide
Yakama Nation Head Start
Department of Health & Human Services
Hourly Wage: DOQ/Part-Time/Regular
Location: Wapato Center

This is a general food service worker for the Yakama Nation Head Start Program. The employees occupying the positions of this class are responsible for assisting in the preparation and serving of meals. Work involves assisting the Cook prepare food items by opening and warming canned vegetables; cutting and peeling fruits and vegetables; preparing salads and desserts; assembling sack lunches; setting up tables and serving meals; cleaning tables, kitchen area and cooking equipment, and participating in menu planning. Incidental work may entail taking inventory of food supply and shopping for replacement items. After the routine is learned, the work is performed with some independence under the direction of the cook and is reviewed for compliance to instructions and health standards.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

- Ability to learn the methods and practices of food preparation and service.
- Ability to read, write and follow general instruction.
- Ability to learn and perform a variety of general food preparation functions.
- Ability to follow lines of authority at all times.
- Must have knowledge of Yakama Indian Nation Tribal Personnel Policies and Procedures.

General Recruiting Indicators:

- Enrolled Yakama.
- High school Diploma or equivalent.
- Must have a documented Medical Physical Examination, TB skin test, to ensure physical and mental health.
- Must possess a Food Handler's Card or ability to obtain.
- Must possess a First Aid/CPR card or ability to obtain.
- Must have reliable transportation, and proper liability insurance.
- Must be able to pass a Criminal History Background check.
- Minimum: Any experience or education which would demonstrate the ability to perform work.
- Preference given to former Head Start parent.
- Must follow the lines of authority at all times.
- Must have the ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with all co-workers.
- Ability to pass a pre-employment drug and alcohol test.